

TEXT: <https://www.un.org/en/climatechange/what-is-climate-change>

QUESTIONS:

What is the primary focus of the United Nations in addressing climate change?

- a) Economic development
- b) Social justice
- c) Environmental protection 👍
- d) Space exploration

How does the text describe the impacts of climate change on vulnerable communities and regions?

- a) It has no significant impact on vulnerable communities.
- b) It disproportionately affects vulnerable communities. 👍
- c) Vulnerable communities are not mentioned in the text.
- d) Climate change only impacts developed nations.

According to the text, what are some of the key factors contributing to climate change?

- a) Decreased carbon emissions
- b) Afforestation and reforestation
- c) Greenhouse gas emissions and deforestation 👍
- d) Energy efficiency and renewable energy sources

What are the potential consequences of not taking action to address climate change, as mentioned in the text?

- a) Improved environmental conditions
- b) Increased biodiversity
- c) Severe weather events, sea-level rise, and food scarcity 👍
- d) Economic prosperity for all

According to the United Nations, how can individuals, communities, and governments contribute to combating climate change?

- a) By increasing greenhouse gas emissions
- b) By ignoring international agreements
- c) By working together to reduce emissions and promote sustainable practices 👍
- d) By relying solely on technological solutions